EXPERIENCE

CO-FOUNDER, PRODUCT STRATEGY & DESIGN | HIVE OPENAI BUILD WEEK 2026 JUL 13–21, 2026

- Led the end-to-end product design of a mobile-first, AI-powered marketplace for verified college students, from user research and product definition to information architecture, interaction flows, high-fidelity UI, and functional prototyping.
- Synthesized 121 student survey responses, interviews, and competitive research to identify pain points around platform fragmentation, trust, and listing friction, translating insights into product requirements and design decisions.
- Mapped buyer and seller journeys across discovery, product details, messaging, checkout, photo upload, AI analysis, review, and publishing; designed solutions including .edu verification, campus-based discovery, AI-generated listings, and pricing guidance.
- Built a functional prototype using Figma Make, Stitch, and Codex, translating designs into an interactive MVP and collaborating in a two-person team from concept through implementation and iteration.

MARKETING & PUBLIC RELATIONS TRAINEE | TENCENT OCT 2026 - PRESENT

- Selected for Tencent's MPR program to work on live business briefs under the mentorship of Tencent professionals across AI, trend research, and strategic communications.
- Research emerging AI products and digital experiences, analyzing product features, user experience, competitive positioning, and market opportunities.
- Conduct trend and industry research across consumer behavior, social media, and emerging technologies, translating market signals into actionable insights and creative concepts.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT & MARKETING INTERN | DITTO MAY 2026 - AUG 2026

- Analyzed product, market, and audience insights to support product positioning, launches, and growth initiatives for an AI-focused startup.
- Translated complex product concepts and business strategy into clear visual narratives across executive, investor, and external-facing presentations.
- Analyzed audience behavior and content performance across TikTok, Instagram, and RED to identify engagement patterns and inform cross-platform creative decisions.
- Supported product launches, growth initiatives, and investor-facing communications during a $9.2M fundraising round.

DESIGNER & MARKETING STRATEGIST | TROJAN MARKETING GROUP AUG 2025 - PRESENT

- Conduct competitive, audience, and cultural trend research for client projects, translating consumer insights into creative strategy, campaign positioning, and design direction.
- Develop integrated digital and experiential campaign concepts based on audience insights, contributing to 56K organic impressions and engagement 74% above industry benchmarks for women's footwear brand Saysh.
- Collaborate across strategy, design, production, client, and campus teams to bring concepts from research through execution, including a brand activation reaching 400+ attendees.

LEADERSHIP & ACTIVITIES

CO-DIRECTOR, PUBLICITY DEPARTMENT | USC CHINESE STUDENT ASSOCIATION JAN 2024 - PRESENT

- Co-lead a 15-member creative team, assigning project ownership, managing timelines, reviewing deliverables, and providing creative direction across multiple concurrent initiatives.
- Collaborate cross-functionally with event, sponsorship, and organizational teams to translate program goals into cohesive communication and creative strategies across digital and physical touchpoints.
- Lead creative execution for major campus programs reaching 500+ attendees, coordinating projects from initial planning and concept development through production, review, and launch.
